P.S.

Dear Alma Mater, we render thanks to thee,
We never can repay our debts to thee,
Tho' we afar may roam, and distant be our home,
We will remember thee, dear Ritenour High.

Dear Alma Mater, when we must part from thee,
Sadly we leave thy gates, but we believe
The years we spent with thee will live in memory,
And guide us on our way, dear Ritenour High.

Sophomore, Junior, Senior . . . Graduation. Quiet classroom atmosphere . . . Warm, humid field house. A learning environment, amusement is the upbeat . . . discovery and knowledge in a carefree disguise. Some will pursue higher goals . . . Mizzou or perhaps . . . M.I.T.? Still the underlying playfulness. The tempo is quick and lively and hurried—a scherzo of gay and buoyant character. Close to the end, details dissolve. . . jumbled memories merge and solidify. The Best Years of Our Lives, some say.
